

Swift Hall

D23

If you have comments, send additional information

Address: 1025-35 East 58th Street

Year Construction: 1926

Year Acquired: 1926

Architect: Coolidge and Hodgdon

Gross Square Feet: 54,241

Primary Use: Academic Office

Design Zone: Main Quadrangle

Last Major Renovation:

Unknown

Comments:

No comment

REGULATORY STATUS

National Register: Not individually listed

NR Historic District:

Hyde Park-Kenwood Historic District

Chicago HRS Color Code: Orange

1 - Site

Land Ownership Status: Owned

Location - Physical:

Prominent presence on the south of main quad (vacated 58th Street).

Location - Program Adjacency:

Connected to Bond Chapel via covered stone arcade.

Location Comment:

Part of Divinity School architectural grouping including Bond Chapel. Freestanding from adjacent buildings.

2 - Adaptability

Construction Type:

Reinforced concrete construction

Accessibility:

Entrance - Y; Bathrooms - P

Floor-to-Floor Height:

1st, 2nd: 16'-0", 3rd: 13'-6", 4th: 10'-3"

Structural Capability:

Adaptable subject to structural analysis.

Adaptability Exterior:

Exterior is substantially original fabric - adaptation should be carefully considered.

Adaptability Interior:

Offices and classrooms are adaptable within construction type constraints. Large third floor meeting room (former library) is two-story space.

Adaptability Physical Features:

Building grouping designed and constructed as unified academic Gothic unit without physical connection to adjacent buildings.

Adaptability Structure:

Adaptable within constraints of construction type.

3 - Building Envelope

Roof Type: Clay Tile (1998)

Exterior Facade:

Limestone

Exterior Base: Limestone

Exterior Trim: Limestone

4 - Heritage and Historic

Landmark Status:

no

National Register: Not individually listed

NR Historic District:

Hyde Park-Kenwood Historic District

NR Comments:

Architectural significance

CHRS Comments:

Possesses potentially significant architectural or historical significance

Heritage - Exterior:

Facade and windows are substantially original.

Heritage - Interior:

Interior finishes (tile floors and base, plaster walls and some decorative plaster ceilings) are substantially original. First floor lounge and third floor meeting room have original features such as wood paneling, decorative carvings, and fireplace. Bronze plaques at main lobby by Leonard Crunelle, pupil of Lorado Taft.

Swift Hall

D23

Former library on second floor features significant wood carved angels as part of the ceiling ornamentation.

Significant Spaces Identified:

No Comment

Heritage Culture Elements:

Building was constructed for the Divinity School which still occupies it.

Architectural Awards Certification:

None identified

Heritage and History - General Comments:

Significant building on main quad still housing original department for which it was built. Anecdotal story of assassination in third floor men's room.

5 - Sustainability

Certifications:

none identified

Window Last Replacement:Weather Stripping:

not identified

R Value Roof/Wall:

not identified

Systems:Deficiencies: