

Rosenwald Hall

D24

If you have comments, send additional information

Address: 1101-11 East 58th Street

Year Construction: 1915

Year Acquired: 1915

Architect: Holabird and Roche

Gross Square Feet: 61,057

Primary Use: Academic Office

Design Zone: Main Quadrangle

Last Major Renovation:

1972; 1997; 2004

Comments:

Geology and Geography Building turned over to Graduate School of Business in 1971 which occupied the building until 2004. Last Major Renovation 1972 by Samuel Arthur Lichtmann for Graduate School of Business; 1997 reconfiguration by McClier; 2004 partial renovation by Maureen Reagan Architects.

REGULATORY STATUS

National Register: Not individually listed

NR Historic District:

Hyde Park-Kenwood Historic District

Chicago HRS Color Code: Yellow

1 - Site

Land Ownership Status: Owned

Location - Physical:

Location - Program Adjacency:

Connected to Walker Museum on all floors but 4th and to Stuart via covered stone bridgeway.

Location Comment:

Occupies interior corner at south of main quad facing north and west. Connected to Walker Museum and shares elevator use. Connected via stone covered bridgeway to Stuart Hall.

2 - Adaptability

Construction Type:

Reinforced concrete construction

Accessibility:

Entrance - Y; Bathrooms - P

Floor-to-Floor Height:

1st: 19'-3", 2nd, 3rd: 13'-2"

Structural Capability:

Highly adaptable subject to structural analysis.

Adaptability Exterior:

Exterior is substantially original - adaptation should be carefully considered.

Adaptability Interior:

Offices and small classrooms - adaptable within construction type constraints.

Adaptability Physical Features:

Building has tower formerly used as weather station.

Adaptability Structure:

Highly adaptable within construction type constraints.

3 - Building Envelope

Roof Type: Clay Tile (2001)

Exterior Facade:

Limestone

Exterior Base: Limestone

Exterior Trim: Limestone

4 - Heritage and Historic

Landmark Status:

no

National Register: Not individually listed

NR Historic District:

Hyde Park-Kenwood Historic District

NR Comments:

Architectural significance, item #105 on district nomination form

CHRS Comments:

Too altered for architectural or historic significance

Heritage - Exterior:

Exterior ornamentation is related to former use by geology/geography departments.

Heritage - Interior:

Significant interior spaces with original features include the main stair tower with decorative stone

Rosenwald Hall

D24

carvings. Original museum at first floor level was modified to house the Admissions offices and features some altered original wood paneling and carved elements.

Significant Spaces Identified:

No Comment

Heritage Culture Elements:

Originally housed geology and geography departments. Later remodeled for Admissions and other department uses.

Architectural Awards Certification:

None identified

Heritage and History - General Comments:

Significantly ornamented academic Gothic building with notably modern construction and interior planning.

5 - Sustainability

Certifications:

none identified

Window Last Replacement:Weather Stripping:

not identified

R Value Roof/Wall:

not identified

Systems:Deficiencies: