

Haskell Hall

D39

If you have comments, send additional information

Address: 5836 South Greenwood Avenue

Year Construction: 1896

Year Acquired: 1896

Architect: Henry Ives Cobb

Gross Square Feet: 39,899

Primary Use: Academic Office

Design Zone: Main Quadrangle

Last Major Renovation:

1979

Comments:

Original Oriental Institute Museum building, later assigned to the Business School. Became Anthropology in 1979 via a swap of Walker for Haskell. Basement dry laboratory for Anthropology.

REGULATORY STATUS

National Register: Not individually listed

NR Historic District:

Hyde Park-Kenwood Historic District

Chicago HRS Color Code: Orange

1 - Site

Land Ownership Status: Owned

Location - Physical:

No comment

Location - Program Adjacency:

Connected to Harper Memorial Library via second floor stone enclosed walkway.

Location Comment:

Building is at west of significant courtyard formed by Harper Memorial Library and Stuart Hall.

2 - Adaptability

Construction Type:

Load-bearing masonry walls and steel construction

Accessibility:

Not Accessible

Floor-to-Floor Height:

n.a.

Structural Capability:

Adaptable subject to structural analysis.

Adaptability Exterior:

Exterior masonry is substantially original.

Adaptability Interior:

Former museum spaces have limitations for adaptability. Space has been adapted for current offices, classrooms and laboratories.

Adaptability Physical Features:

Building has large upper attic level.

Adaptability Structure:

Adaptable within construction constraints.

3 - Building Envelope

Roof Type: Clay Tile (2005)

Exterior Facade:

Limestone

Exterior Base: Limestone

Exterior Trim: Limestone

4 - Heritage and Historic

Landmark Status:

No

National Register: Not individually listed

NR Historic District:

Hyde Park-Kenwood Historic District

NR Comments:

Architectural significance, item #102 on district nomination form

CHRS Comments:

Possesses potentially significant architectural or historical features

Heritage - Exterior:

Masonry facade substantially intact. Restrained carved stone ornament.

Heritage - Interior:

Original features such as wood doors, wood and glass partitions, decorative glazing, and stone floor finishes remain. Significant renovations such as main stair hall have removed original character of museum exhibit spaces.

Haskell Hall

D39

Significant Spaces Identified:

No Comment

Heritage Culture Elements:

Building was part of the second phase of main quad construction and originally served as a museum for oriental studies and contained the Breasted collection which was later transferred to the Oriental Institute. The building was later adapted for offices, classrooms and labs for the anthropology department.

Architectural Awards Certification:

None identified

Heritage and History - General Comments:

Building original featured an extensive skylight for interior exhibitions.

5 - Sustainability

Certifications:

none identified

Window Last Replacement:Weather Stripping:

not identified

R Value Roof/Wall:

not identified

Systems:Deficiencies: